

A Message for the Day of Eid

By Mawlana Tamir Shujauddin (Teacher at Madrasah Baytul Ilm)

The day has eventually come
Through His mercy and grace
A day of celebration
A smile on every face

A day to meet our friends
A day to spend with family
A day of exchanging gifts
A day where we're all happy

A day of eating and drinking
A day where varieties are plenty
A day of total enjoyment
A day where our clothes are fancy

But along with all of this
Let's not forget something else
Let's not forget the Almighty
Who has given us this happiness

Let's not forget our Salāh
Let's not forget our Qur'ān
Let's not forget all the efforts
That we have made in Ramadhān

We spent our time in ibādah
We came closer to Allāh
Let's not do those things
Which will take us afar

This day is not to just enjoy
This day is also to be grateful
To the one and only Lord
Who has always been so merciful

Let's make a firm intention
To continue on this path
To work towards Jannah
To avoid Allāh's wrath

And with these advices
We would also like to say
Eid Mubāarak to everyone
Have a blessed and fruitful day!

EID MUBARAK
